Pull Up a Chair: A Bigger Table Conversation + Meal

What if church felt like a place where everyone truly belonged—not just in words, but in lived experience?

Join us for a welcoming and meaningful gathering inspired by A Bigger Table. Whether you've read the book or not, you're invited into a thoughtful, engaging conversation about inclusion, belonging, and what it means to live out a faith that makes room for all.

And because good conversations happen best around a table—this event includes a catered meal for everyone.

Come as you are. Bring your questions, your curiosity, and your voice.

What to expect:

- A relaxed, guided discussion (no reading required)
- Honest and respectful conversation
- A shared meal that reflects the spirit of gathering together

Together, we'll explore:

- What does it really mean to “welcome all”?
 - Where do we see barriers—and how might we remove them?
 - How is God inviting us to grow as a community
- There is a place for you here. Truly.
